

- A. Alfred drove 59 miles, and then he stopped for gas. Then, Alfred drove 34 more miles before stopping for lunch. How far did Alfred drive?
-
- B. The library has 23 books about dinosaurs. The library has 14 more books about space. How many books about space does the library have?
-
- C. The farmer has 61 sheep and cows. If 25 of the animals are sheep, how many are cows?
-
- D. Frances poured cups of lemonade. She sold 38 cups and has 19 cups left. How many cups did Frances pour?

- E. Mr. Jones delivers packages. He delivered 26 packages on Thursday and 85 packages on Friday. How many more packages did he deliver on Friday?
-
- F. There were some students on the school bus. Then, 19 more students got on the bus. There are now 34 students on the bus. How many students were on the bus to start with?
-
- G. The grocery store has 22 fewer peaches than apples. If the grocery has 74 apples, how many peaches does the store have?
-
- H. Jack had $38, and then he bought a shirt. Now, Jack has $14. How much did the shirt cost?